Learning Objectives

By the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- Summarize recent changes in CPA licensure requirements across various states
- Explain the importance of CPE compliance
- Identify the most frequent findings from NASBA sponsor audits
- Apply CPE sponsor best practices

CPA Licensure Update

- AICPA & NASBA proposed changes to the Uniform Accountant Act model legislation in February
- Ohio first to pass legislation offering new pathways with Virginia right behind them
- Several states have since introduced bills or signed bills adding additional pathways to CPA licensure
- CPA Exam is still a requirement in all pathways
- Resources:
 - MNCPA
 - AccountingToday

Additional Pathways to Include Bachelor's + 2 or Master's + 1
(Legislation or BOA Rule Changes)

- Seeking change in 2025
- Expected to pursue in the future
- Publicly supported additional pathways
- Changed law in 2025

Instructor Biographical Requirements

S24-01. Required documentation elements. Evidence of compliance with responsibilities set forth under these Standards that is to be retained by CPE program sponsors includes the following:

- Records of participation.
- Dates and locations.
- Author/instructor, author/developer, and content reviewer, as applicable, names and credentials. For the CPA and tax attorney acting as an author/instructor, author/developer, and content reviewer for accounting, auditing, or tax program(s), the state of licensure, license number, and status of license should be maintained. For the enrolled agent acting in such capacity for tax program(s), information regarding the enrolled agent number should be maintained.
- Number of CPE credits earned by participants.
- Results of program evaluations.
- Program descriptive materials (course announcement information).

CPE Calculation

- One-fifth OR one-half increments allowed
- Best practice: review the agenda!

Element of Engagement

- Applies to group live (and group-internet based when done simultaneously with group live)
- Be sure to have at least 1 element of engagement per credit hour
- Best practice: when all else fails, add a “Questions?” slide!
